Product Discontinuation Notice

We would thank you for using YMC products.

With this message, we inform you about the discontinuation of production for the product specified below.

Our supplier for the key raw materials informed us that the supply is no longer possible. Therefore, we are unfortunately in the unavoidable situation of discontinuation at the date indicated below. At this point we would also like to point out that all other YMC columns are still fully available. Please contact your local agent if you need any technical support from YMC.

We apologize for your inconvenience caused by the discontinuation.
